

The Question:

Who Will Take Care of A Child with Special Needs When The Parents Are No Longer Able?

The Answer:

If You Have A Child Or Grandchild With Special Needs, You Must Make Special Provisions In Your Estate Plan For That Special Child

We are proud to present a unique workshop:

For The Love of My Special Child: Estate Planning For Parents of Children with Special Needs

Learn How You Can:

- Identify the dangers facing your child and your estate plan, and how to deal with them
- Ensure that there will be sufficient resources to care for your child for his or her entire life
- Provide a true legacy for your other children
- Avoid estate and income taxes on your legacy
- Ensure your child's continued eligibility
- Protect all of your loved ones' inheritance
 - From lawsuit creditors
 - From predators who prey on the disabled
 - From denial of medical assistance
- You will learn:
 - Why the new laws make good planning more important than ever;
 - How to maintain control of your legacy;
 - How to leave your special child and other heirs what you want, when you want, and the way you want – yes, there are options!
- Learn how you can effectively convey loving instructions about your hopes, dreams, and aspirations for those you love.

Find Out More Online:

www.mydenverlawyer.com

If you have a child with special needs, or know of someone with a child with special needs, including mild disabilities which simply render them vulnerable, you should attend this workshop!

Call Today To Reserve Your Place At Our Free Workshop To Be Held:

Wednesday, Sept. 22nd
6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

Benedict's Restaurant
8181 East Arapahoe Road
Greenwood Village

(Light refreshments will be served)

This Workshop is Without Cost Or Obligation, But Reservations Are Required—Please call today

(720) 529-9800

Steven R. Owens, J.D.

Attorney and Counsellor at Law
Greenwood Village, Colorado

Steve practices extensively in the area of Special Needs Planning and his workshops are "informative and entertaining"

Learn more at Steve's website:
www.mydenverlawyer.com